Item 8.01. Other Events.

On October 13, 2015, Vanda Pharmaceuticals Inc. (the “Company”) filed four separate patent infringement lawsuits in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware asserting U.S. Patent No. 9,138,432 (the “‘432 Patent”), recently listed on the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (the “FDA”) publication Approved Drug Products With Therapeutic Equivalence Evaluations, commonly known as the Orange Book. Two of these lawsuits join existing litigations against the Fanapt Abbreviated New Drug Application (“ANDA”) filers, Roxane Laboratories, Inc. (“Roxane”) and Inventia Healthcare Pvt. Ltd. (“Inventia”). The other two lawsuits are filed against new ANDA filers, Taro Pharmaceuticals, U.S.A., Inc./Taro Pharmaceuticals Industries Ltd. (“Taro”) and Apotex Inc. (“Apotex”), in which the Company is additionally asserting the Company’s U.S. Patent No. 8,586,610 (the “‘610 Patent”).

The first of these lawsuits, which was filed against Roxane, seeks an adjudication that Roxane has infringed the ‘432 Patent by submitting to the FDA an ANDA for a generic version of Fanapt® prior to the expiration of the ‘432 Patent in September 2025. This lawsuit is separate from the Company’s two pending cases against Roxane relating to the ‘610 Patent and Aventisub LLC’s U.S. Patent No. RE39,198, which are scheduled to be tried together in a four-day bench trial beginning on February 29, 2016.

The second of these lawsuits, which was filed against Inventia, seeks an adjudication that Inventia has infringed the ‘432 Patent by submitting to the FDA an ANDA for a generic version of Fanapt® prior to the expiration of the ‘432 Patent in September 2025. This lawsuit is separate from the Company’s pending case against Inventia relating to the ‘610 Patent, which is scheduled to be tried in a four-day bench trial beginning on January 17, 2017.

The third of these lawsuits, which was filed against Taro, seeks an adjudication that Taro has infringed one or more claims of the ‘432 Patent and the ‘610 Patent by submitting to the FDA an ANDA for a generic version of Fanapt® prior to the expiration of the ‘432 Patent in September 2025 and the ‘610 Patent in November 2027.

The fourth of these lawsuits, which was filed against Apotex and Apotex Corp., seeks an adjudication that Apotex has infringed one or more claims of the ‘432 Patent and the ‘610 Patent by submitting to the FDA an ANDA for a generic version of Fanapt® prior to the expiration of the ‘432 Patent in September 2025 and the ‘610 Patent in November 2027.
