Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously disclosed, in June 2014 Vanda Pharmaceuticals Inc. (the “Company”) filed suit against Roxane Laboratories, Inc. (“Roxane”) in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware (the “Delaware District Court”). The suit sought an adjudication that Roxane has infringed one or more claims of the Company’s U.S. Patent No. 8,586,610 (the “‘610 Patent”) by submitting to the FDA an Abbreviated New Drug Application (“ANDA”) for a generic version of Fanapt® prior to the expiration of the ‘610 Patent in November 2027. In addition, pursuant to the settlement agreement with Novartis Pharma AG (“Novartis”), the Company assumed Novartis’ patent infringement action against Roxane in the Delaware District Court. That suit alleged that Roxane has infringed one or more claims of U.S Patent RE39198 (the “‘198 Patent”), which is licensed exclusively to the Company, by filing an ANDA for a generic version of Fanapt® prior to the expiration of the ‘198 Patent in November 2016. These two cases against Roxane were consolidated by agreement of the parties and were tried together in a five-day bench trial that concluded on March 4, 2016.

On August 25, 2016, the Delaware District Court ruled in favor of the Company, finding that Roxane’s proposed products infringed the asserted claims of the ‘610 Patent and the ‘198 Patent. The Delaware District Court ruled that the Company is entitled to a permanent injunction against Roxane enjoining Roxane from infringing the ‘610 Patent, including the manufacture, use, sale, offer to sell, sale, distribution or importation of any generic iloperidone product described in the ‘610 Patent ANDA until the expiration of the ‘610 Patent in November 2027.

A press release announcing the Delaware District Court’s decision is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated by reference herein.

Vanda Patents Found Valid and Infringed in Fanapt® ANDA Litigation

WASHINGTON, August 25, 2016 /PRNewswire/ — Vanda Pharmaceuticals Inc. (Vanda) (NASDAQ: VNDA) today announced that Judge Gregory M. Sleet of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware ruled that Roxane Laboratories Inc. (Roxane) infringed U.S. Patent Nos. RE39,198 (the ‘198 Patent) and 8,586,610 (the ‘610 Patent) by submitting to the FDA an ANDA seeking permission to market a generic version of Fanapt® before the expiration of Vanda’s patents.

“We are very pleased that the court found both patents valid, found that Roxane’s ANDA infringes the ‘198 patent and the ‘610 patent, and accordingly issued an injunction barring Roxane from marketing its product until the expiration of the later expiring ‘610 patent on November 2, 2027,” said Mihael H. Polymeropoulos, M.D., Vanda’s President and CEO.
